The loyal West in the time of the rebellion ... (Cont. 2)
In 1861 the authors published "Our whole country" in 2 vols.; the first dealing with the Atlantic states, the second with the rest of the country. The present work is a sequel to the first, omitting the states in rebellion, while the chapters on Kentucky, Ohio, Indiana, Illinois, Michigan, Wisconsin, Minnesota, Iowa and Missouri are followed by new sections with title "The time of the rebellion in Kentucky" etc. A new edition was published 1867, with title "All the western states and territories, from the Alleghenies to the Pacific and from the Lakes to the Gulf." The sections relating to the rebellion, omitted from this edition, were published separately, Cincinnati, 1867, with title: The time of the rebellion in the West ... By Henry Howe.

Barbette, Paul, 1629-1699.
Theatrum chirurgie: the chirurgicall & anatomical works of Paul Barbette, m. d. practitioner at Amsterdam. Composed according to the doctrine of the circulation of the blood, and other new inventions of the moderns. Together with a treatise of the plague, illustrated with observations. Translated out of Low-Dutch into English. The 3d ed. To which is added
the surgeon's chest, furnished both with instruments and medicines, all methodically illustrated with several copper plates: and to Barbey d'Aureville, Jules Amédée, 1808-1889.

Lacoon: a forgotten rhyme, tr. into English verse from the French of J. Barbey d'Aureville, by H. M. Carey.

Cuen, Printed at the expense of B. Mancel, late publisher, by E. Poisson, 1857.

v, (i), 15 p. 20^{cm}.

Text in French and English; preface in French only.

The French original was published the same year in the author's "Deux rythmes oubliés." In his preface to this translation G. S. Trebutien states that the original forms part of a work, "Les rythmes oubliés," which is soon to appear. This work, however, was not published until 1897.

"Presented to the Bannityne club by William Henry Miller." Edited by David Laing, who printed a preface, but withdrew it, owing to objections of the contributor, and the volume was issued in 1834 without any introductory matter. Laing's preface was finally published in his Advertiser, 1867, p. 11-16.

Reproduces several large cuts of Arthurian's device.

The Buik of Alexander ... 1921-29. (Card 2)

Vol. 1, 1925; v. 2, 1924; v. 3, 1927; v. 4, 1929. The unique original, printed about 1580 in Edinburgh by Alexander Arthurhouse, lacks 1 p. and 8 leaves of signature 1. It is a free Scottish version of two French poems, which form parts of the Roman d'Alexandre: "Les vœux du paon," by Jacques de Longuyon, with part of "Li fuere de Gades" printed, the latter by one Fontaine, rewritten by Alexandre de Bernay. The introduction (v. 1, p. still-correct) contains a full discussion of Barbour's authorship, which is disputed, and comparison between the "Buik" and his "Bruce."

Barcelona. Museu de ciències naturals.

In accordance with the provisions of the will of Francesc Martorell i Ponsa, dated 1878, a public museum was established in Barcelona under the name of Museu Martorell. The building was opened in 1902. In 1908-09 the archaeological collections were withdrawn to form the basis of an archaeological museum. Upon the establishment, in 1906, of the Junta de ciències naturals, the museum came under the control of that body. It is known as Museu de ciències naturals, and is also commonly called Museu Martorell.

Barclay, Robert, 1648-1690.

A catechism and confession of faith, approved of and agreed unto by the general assembly of the patriarchs, prophets, and apostles, Christ himself chief speaker in and among them. Which containeth a true and faithful account of the principles and doctrines, which are most surely believed by the churches of Christ in Great Britain and Ireland, who are reproachfully called by the name of Quakers; yet are found in the one faith with the primitive church and saints, as is most clearly demonstrated by some plain Scripture testimonies (without concealing).

Treatise on the justice, policy, and utility of establishing an effectual system for promoting the progress of useful arts, by acquiring property in the production of genius. To which are added, observations on the deficiency of, and exceptions to the bill reported in March 1792. With note, tending to demonstrate, that no property is secured in the products of genius, under the existing patent system. Also, the principles upon which a bill ought to be formed, to be effectual and equitable.
